Details of three references including your church leader who are not family members. Please include, at minimum: name, phone number, and email address. Have one of these references write a letter of recommendation commending you for the internship program.

1.

3.

What are your top three motivations to be involved in the Grace Fellowship intern program?

In a few words, how would you describe your character and temperament (strengths and weaknesses)?

What involvement or position do you have in your local church?

What do you see as your main gifts?

How would you define your general theological position?

What is the Gospel?

Summarize in a few words your position on:

The authority of Scripture:

The work of the cross:

The sovereignty of God:

In your own words, how do you understand the doctrine of predestination and what view do you personally hold on this doctrine? (e.g. God's sovereignty vs. man's responsibility, free will, who are the elect, etc.)

A group of people are talking and invite you to answer a question they have been trying to figure out. The question they are trying to answer is what role does prayer have in the Christian life if you preach the sovereignty of God? What would be your answer for them?

What experience have you had of local or cross-cultural mission?

What would you hope to gain from the internship with Grace Fellowship?

What do you see as your probable long-term future in terms of career and Christian ministry?

Please initial the statements to which you agree and sign below.
